Snow Events Planned for Winter Carnival

The Grayling Winter Sports Carnival committee is continuing to schedule a full lineup of snow events while keeping an eye on the weather and formulating plans for activities which can be carried on without the much needed white stuff.

New developments for the 55th Annual affair will include student winter art in store windows, formal flag raising ceremonies each day, and competition in the downhill canoe race from teams sent by nearby ski resorts. All local entrants will still be accepted in the canoe event.

Sleigh rides will definitely be conducted during the four day carnival although the lack of snow might change the type of vehicle to a wagon.

Ray Lange, committee chairman, indicated that all is in readiness for the carnival to be held on Feb. 9-10, 16-17. He said the programs and badges will be ready in the near future with the badges going on sale after Jan. 20 at local stores and the chamber office.

Rotary Club Fish Fry Friday

The Grayling Rotary Club Fish Fry on Jan. 25 will feature a Basketball Special take-out dinner beginning at 4 p.m. for those persons who plan on traveling to Cheboygan for the high school game.

The early starting hour will also be open to individuals who have work responsibilities during the normal dinner period of 5-8 p.m.

According to Ray Kehr, chairman for the event, the kitchen crew has been practicing ever since last year's event to keep in shape for the massive turnout of fish gourmets traditionally seen at the fry. He noted that the waiters will be wearing their equivalent of track shoes in order to provide the fastest service possible.

Kehr said that a good turnout for the affair will assure that current worthy projects such as the ambulance fund and Hanson Hills snow groomer will receive generous contributions.

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from any Rotary Club member or at the door at a cost of $4 for adults and $2 for children 12 and under.

Newsletters Offered To Help

Families Cope With Income Squeeze

by Merrill Lacasse,
Extension Home Economist

Inflation is a lot like the weather: it's easy to talk about but hard to do anything about.

There are some ways to ease inflation's squeeze on family finances, however. These will be explored in a series of six monthly newsletters "Making Ends Meet" beginning in February.

The newsletters, developed by Extension family resource management specialists at Michigan State University, are designed to help families cope with rising prices and shrinking dollars. The first issue will lay the groundwork for the rest. It will explain how inflation is affecting wages and prices, who is being hit the hardest and how consumers are responding. Later issues will focus on ways you can cope with the rising costs of goods.

ROOC Test Center Provides Vocational Roadmap

by Joe Schrader

The philosophical objective of the ROOC Vocational Evaluation Center can perhaps best be described in the words from the following quote: "Give me a fish and I eat today, teach me to fish and I will eat forever."

Using that message as a cornerstone for human development, the ROOC Workshop and allied Vocational Testing Center was established some years ago to provide pre-employment testing and vocational opportunities for residents, particularly handicapped residents, living in a four county area including Crawford.

Working hand in hand, the two combine a blend of unique skills that offer vocational testing and direction, guidance and job opportunity for scores of people whose future may hold forth little hope without them.

Perched atop Pioneer Hills near Roscommon, just a stone's throw away from Grayling, the center services clients in Roscommon, Oscoda and Ogemaw counties in addition to Crawford. "We even extend our services beyond the boundaries of this 4-county area," explained Ron Matthews, Chief Vocational Evaluator at the center during an interview last week.

Matthews, a Wisconsin native with a Masters Degree in Vocational Rehabilitation, has headed up the Evaluation Center the past 2½ years. His chief aide is Evaluator Tom Braun, who came from Minnesota to this area nine months ago. Both earned their degrees from the University of Wisconsin in Stout, one of only three colleges in the country offering a Vocational Rehabilitation curriculum with an emphasis on evaluation. Larry Meier is Director at the ROOC sheltered workshop and activity facility where the test center is an interrelated, yet separate department.

"The main purpose here," Matthews explained as he pointed out the various testing equipment used, "is to provide an individual with some basic idea of what vocational field, or job, he is most suited for based on the aptitude and skills he displays."

Most clients are sent to the center from a number of referral sources, including the Bureau of Rehabilitation, Dept. of Social Services and Community Mental Health agencies. Others participating are private rehab organizations and area schools, along with self-referrals who enroll on their own. Most, but not all, are handicapped clients.

When Matthews arrived at the center 2½ years ago, only five homemade work samples were available to use for testing purposes. Since then, with grants obtained primarily through the Bureau of Rehabilitation, the center has obtained sophisticated test materials which provide pre-vocational information that can guide a client toward meaningful occupation. Yet some test equipment is unique in its simplicity.

Take, for example, the miniature road and traffic display, toy-like in its setting, simple and fun to use, but meaningful in the interpretation of its results. Braun explained the center can determine if a client is socially enough familiar with vehicular traffic and movement, warning signs, etc., to be able to cope within a light or heavy traffic environment. Simple but effective, yet only a small part of the many testing techniques employed.

Client testing varies in length and intensity depending on individual need. Matthews explained the first order of business

Additional $$$$ Requests Meet County Board

by Joe Schrader

Requests for an estimated $35,000 in additional county dollars in 1980 met members of the Board of Commissioners last Monday when they met in regular session for the first time this year.

The addition of an employee in the County Clerk's office and a combination Dispatcher-Turnkey for the sheriff were among the requests submitted. Money for an additional phone hookup at the sheriff's department, photographic supplies left out of the original 1980 budget request by the sheriff and a 25¢ per diem prisoner meal price hike (from $3.75 to $4.00) were also requested.

Commissioners turned the matters over to the Board Finance Committee, made up of Chairman Jeannette Kitchen, Andie Neilson, Matt Bidvia and Jackie Bonkowski, for consideration although little hope was given for obtaining the additional money. "There's just nothing available," Chairman Larry Mattis said afterward.

Prosecutor Thomas Kent came under some fire at the Monday meeting for refusing to provide legal advice to County Equalization Director Larry Hunter. In a letter to Hunter denying the request, Kent advised him that attorney Neilson Miles had been retained by the county for $10,000 to provide this type of service. The Board said Miles was only retained in labor relations matters and to represent them in a case in which Kent himself threatened to sue the county. That position was confirmed by Miles, who wrote Kent to inform him of his (Miles) responsibility to the county, which does not include the type of service denied Hunter. See County on Page 2

The Junior Vikes, under Coach Tom Mills, increased their season record to 7-3 with a pair of wins, defeating the Blue Blazers in the preliminary on Tuesday, 65-36, then avenged an earlier season loss to the Ramblers by hanging on for a 53-48 victory on Friday.

called the "Chicago of South America". Its not difficult to see why since this cosmopolitan city of sky scrapers is a busy revelation to all visitors and the heart of new industrialized Brazil. Its nearby port of Santos is the coffee capitol of the world. You'll fly over rivers, mountains and jungles until you reach the new capitol city of Brasilia, one of the most amazing developments of modern times. Brasilia is a completely planned city, ultra modern and a few years ago nothing but a barren wasteland. Today it is the home of a hundred thousand Brazilians and the seat of government.

Hidden from the world in the deep Brazilian jungles is magnificent Iguazu Falls, five times the size of Niagra. Adding to your journey and the natural beauty of Iguazu are the exotic and brilliantly colored birds for which Brazil is noted. Rio is a delight during carnival when one million costumed people jam the decorated boulevards for four days and nights of singing, dancing, and merry making. Parades, marching and dancing groups, and the Opera masqued ball, all complete with actual recorded-on-the-spot singing groups and natural sound effects to make "PORTRAITS OF BRAZIL" one of the most thrilling travelogues of this year's series. Pre-travelogue tickets are available from the Grayling Community School Office and single admission tickets will be available at the door.

To the Editor:
There is a drastic and irreversible assault on Michigan's environment now being planned and going on that will make the irresponsible chemical waste dumping of the past seem like a small incident at a tea party.

This assault has to do with the licensing to allow increased amounts of high level nuclear waste to be stored at every operating nuclear plant in Michigan and the Governor's announcement that he will permit the National Nuclear Waste Disposal Team to begin drilling in Michigan salt beds between Traverse City and Alpena in order to find a national repository for high level nuclear waste.

Governor Millikin has invited the team into Michigan to drill for this purpose in spite of the Nuclear Waste Ban Act, passed by the Legislature last year, which would prevent high level wastes from being stored in Michigan salt beds.

All citizens of Michigan must protest these actions now if they are to protect all their future generations from intolerable risks to their health, safety, and in fact, their very survival. Please write to Attorney General Frank Kelly voicing your concern.

Many thanks for all your valiant efforts in this cause!
—A Concerned Citizen.

The county ended up last year $118,000 in the red, a figure Treasurer Joe Wakeley said will be reduced because of the receipt of $11,000 in 1979 revenue sharing and $23,000 in CETA reimbursements. Receipt of the checks did not come in time to be included in the final, year-end financial computation, Wakeley said. Had they been included, the deficit would have been $84,000.

From Our Corner ...

We finally found out this year how to set back and enjoy the Sunday Super Bowl game and not have pulsating feelings, and at times thinking you are having a heart attack if the team your money is riding on is only a few points apart from your winning big or losing big...

Don't bet on either team...
We spent Sunday watching the Steelers and Rams battle it out for some three hours and not once did we get excited or started hollering as if we were at the game in person...it actually was a pleasure...it was the first game in a long time that we enjoyed so much...it didn't matter which club came out on top...

For the life of us, we just cannot understand our winter this year...we have seen open winters before, but they normally came in between heavy snows...we can remember back in the early forties that the winter sports carnival was cancelled as water ran down the main street from a thaw, this came after we had heavy snows...in our some fifty years living in Northern Michigan we have never experienced this kind of winter we are having this year...the lack of snow is taking a heavy toll on the businesses in the area, if February and March is like January, all of Northern Michigan should be declared a disaster area just like other parts of the country when they have floods or too much snow as in the plains states...

Right now we are trying to get reservations for Las Vegas for some time in February or March...we're having about as much luck as trying to find a needle in a haystack...as the saying goes...we never knew there were so many gamblers in the country, or at least that is about the only way you can get a flight out there, you have to try and get on one of their "Super Jackpot Fair" flights or forget it...it was easier to get to Los Angeles than Las Vegas...either that or we possibly may be going through the wrong travel agency in Traverse City which is hard to believe when two years ago we had no trouble and at least our phone inquiries were answered...one has to wonder when you call four times and never get an answer back if you can go to the "Strip" or the "Moon"...

To get our frustration away from one element in Traverse City we received a call from T.C. that if the weather is okay we will have visitors this Thursday for the weekend, namely T.J., Stef and mom, we don't know whether their pony will be accompanying them...

Maybe we were expecting too much...with all the advertising about North Central being taken over by Republic we thought maybe a national image would wear off on the travel agency...

An idle thought...we never heard one licking thing about our accosting the state highway department last week on the sad state the railroad crossing is on M-72 west...except one reader did tell us they kept their mouth shut when crossing the tracks...

We're going to make it easy on our readers this week and call a halt to our Corner with this reminder think snow for our survival in the economic world...snow does not make subzero weather that hurts the heating bill, in fact at times it works as a good insulator...have a good week...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

SPIRIT FILLED CHRISTIAN LIVING

Galatians 5:24-26

Even the Spirit controlled Christian is tempted in three sin areas while he is in the world. "For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." I John 2:16. The Christian is instructed to avoid these sins. "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him." I John 2:15. One who has the fruits of the Spirit in Galatians 5:22, 23 should be able to deal with these specific sin areas in Galatians 5:24-26.

First, the answer to the lust of the flesh. "And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts." Gal. 5:24. There is no easy answer to overcoming the flesh. It must die the slow death of crucifixion. This is a slow painful process which no one likes. For example, the biological drive for sex remains. The Christian must avoid adultery or fornication until this God given biological drive can be fulfilled properly in a marital union.

Second, the answer to the lust of the eyes. "If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit." Gal. 5:25. To walk in the Spirit is to walk in the light of God's Word. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Psalm 119:105. "But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son, cleanseth us from all sin." I John 1:7. Galatians 5:25 says the Spirit controlled man will only claim life through God's Word, but he will walk or put God's Word to practice in his daily life in place of his physical view or sight.

Third, the answer to the pride of life. "Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another." Gal. 5:26. A good view of this verse is found in Proverbs 13:10. "Only by pride cometh contention; but with the well advised is wisdom." Proverbs 13:10. The Spirit controlled man will not have ego trips. He does not have to be number one. He does not provoke people to fight or envy those more fortunate. (adv.)

Local Resident To Help Winter Olympic Games

When the world's greatest amateur athletes gather in Lake Placid, N.Y., Feb. 12-24, for the 1980 Olympic Winter Games, they will be in good company.

In addition to the complement of U.S. athletes who will be competing, some of America's finest sports talent will be serving as race officials for the winter sports spectacular.

An event of the magnitude of the XIII Winter Olympics requires a contingent of officials equal to the task. The Lake Placid Olympic Organizing Committee (LPOOC) has met the challenge by selecting men and women from throughout the country with the background, experience, and expertise in winter sports deserving of the greatest two weeks in amateur athletics.

Among the experts selected to serve as officials for the 1980 Olympic Winter Games is Gustaw Konopnicki of Grayling.

"These people volunteering their services as support staff officials collectively represent the finest talent in the United States in winter sports," LPOOC President Rev. J. Bernard Fell commented. "The proven talents of these officials, their sports knowledge and their continuing dedication to the Olympic ideal combine to assure the success of the world's most prestigious amateur sporting competition."

News of Good Things Growing

An authentic Greek menu, prepared with 'good things' growing in Michigan will be served to members of the Michigan Press association at the 38th Annual All-Michigan dinner.

Hosted by the Michigan Department of Agriculture and food processors and producers of the state, the banquet will climax MPA's annual three-day convention Saturday, January 26. About 650 persons are expected to attend the event in Kellogg Center, East Lansing.

More than 40 Michigan companies will provide menu items and table favors for the newspaper publishers and editors, to illustrate the importance of agriculture, Michigan's second largest industry, to our state's economy.

Fassoulia Plaki will be served as an appetizer, a soup made with Michigan red kidney beans, onions and an assortment of other Michigan vegetables. Entree will be Kota Kapama, tender chicken gently sauted with an aromatic blend of spices and Michigan tomatoes; served with Potatoes Yahn, oven-braised Michigan potatoes, and Fassoulakia Freska, sliced green beans. Yiaourti Salata, a tossed salad with yogurt dressing, will complete the main course.

Dessert will be a traditional rich and delicate Galatoboureko, sheets of paper-thin phyllo pastry filled with custard.

Vin Rose, provided by St. Julian Wine company of Paw Paw, will accompany the meal. St. Julian's has been producing fine Michigan wines and champagnes since 1921.

The Avalanche—Your Want Ad Paper

Dear Diary

You'll never believe what's been happening to me as a candidate for the 1980 Miss Grayling Winter Sports Pageant.

The last two weeks have been so full and exciting. I found out alot about myself: I have two left feet; ten thumbs and muscles I had forgotten about having. Between orientation, exercise, song and dance rehearsals (1-2-3-4 I think I'm counting in my sleep), and make-up demonstrations my head is swimming more than it was at the fun pool parties we had getting acquainted with our pageant moms.

The talent competition had me worried enough, but I found out we're doing a swimsuit review just before the competition begins! Gosh, Diary, how am I going to get in shape in time?

All of our special sessions and rehearsals are being held at Chief Shoppe-nagons. We refer to Chief's as our Pageant Headquarters. They have been so good to us there. It sure makes it nice knowing it's at the "same time, same place" next week.

Diary, there's so many nice people in Grayling helping us have fun, learn and put our best foot forward and if I'm the lucky one to be chosen to represent them in other areas, I will be proud to do so. I've gotta call Grandma and tell her the pageant is Feb. 2nd, Joseph Stripe Auditorium, at 7:30 p.m. and let her know tickets are available at Chief Shoppe-nagons Registration Desk, Chamber of Commerce office, and the Village Shop in the Mini-Mall. The price is $2.00 but I won't charge her.

Good night diary, I have to go and cleanse my face, do my exercises, sing another scale, practice my dance routine, and work on my own talent presentation. Thank Goodness exams are over!

Cheboygan, now on a hot streak with five straight victories under their belt. The Vikes are still ranked 6th in the state in Class C by Detroit News pollsters.

The Vikes were up against a much-improved Boyne City squad Friday before a "standing room only" crowd at the Middle School. Grayling previously manhandled Boyne City, winning by 45 points in the season opener.

Potent scoring in the 2nd and 4th quarters sealed the Viking win as the inspired Ramblers played Grayling on even terms the 1st and 3rd periods.

John Junttila paced the Vikes with 16 points in the game which saw Grayling hit on only 23 of 69 field goal attempts for a mediocre 33%. Boyne City scrambled from a 2-point first quarter deficit, 14-12, to take the lead, 20-18 midway through the second stanza. But Junttila hit a 2-pointer to knot the game at 22-all. Scott Hale added two charity tosses, then his steal and feed to Junttila who canned a left-handed jumper shot Grayling back into the lead.

The Vikes led by ten, 34-24 at the half and again at three quarter mark, 46-36. The Vikes then rattled the nets for 22 points the final period to wrap up the victory.

"We played a much better Boyne City club Friday night," remarked Coach "Butch" Hayes, "their zone was very effective, holding us to just 69 shots all night." Free throw shooting provided almost the full margin of victory for Grayling as they outscored the Ramblers 22 to 8 from the charity stripe.

Rocky Tobin and Bill Roach added 15 and 12 points apiece respectively for Grayling. Mike Chrisman added 8, Bill Lucksted, 7 and Scott Hale, 6. Mike Walsh hit for three and Jim Kitch, one, to round out the Vike scoring. Junttila hauled down 16 rebounds and Scott Hale swiped the ball from the Ramblers six times to lead Grayling defensively.

Larry Jarema led Boyne City with 12 points and Daryl Tims was close behind with 10.

Hitting at only a 38% clip from the floor, the Vikes had to work hard Tuesday night at Kalkaska to overturn a stubborn Blue Blazer squad. The Blazers, one game winners this season, proved no slouch for Grayling, hanging in there with the Vikes until the 4th quarter when a 27-point Grayling outburst nailed down the 70-43 victory. John Junttila hit for fourteen of his game-high 19 points the second half to spark the surge.

The Vikes jumped to a 16-6 first quarter lead but were outscored by Kasky 12 to 9 the 2nd quarter and led by seven at the half, 25-18. The Blazers narrowed the gap to five points, 27-22 early in the 2nd quarter before Grayling got untracked.

Despite the win, the sluggish play the first half by the Vikes irritated Head Coach "Butch" Hayes. "Their shooting percentage and total number of shots were way off," he said later, "they played terrible ball, not Grayling basketball at all."

And his halftime talk must have sunk in as Grayling hit the nets for 45 points the second half, 27 the final quarter, including 10 from guard Bill Lucksted. "That helped," Hayes added, "the kids were much more aggressive all the way around the second half."

John Junttila's 19 points topped the scoring for Grayling and Hayes lauded the junior forward for his defensive play as well. He was credited with 20 ball recoveries in the contest. Bill Roach had 14 points for the Vikes, followed by Lucksted with 12. Scott Hale, back from an ankle injury, hit for 7 points, Rocky Tobin and Todd Dunkley added 5 apiece, Mike Chrisman 4, Jim Kitch 3, with Scott Hamlin and Mike Walsh contributing two apiece.

Kalkaska was 15 of 45 from the floor for 33% while hitting 13 of 19 free throws, a better percentage than Grayling's ten for 17. Center Rick Brown was high scorer for Kalkaska with 16 points while Doug Spencer hit double figures with eleven.

Brad Trenary led Tom Mill's junior Vikes in their 65-36 win over Kalkaska in the preliminary with 14 points. The Vikes opened up a 19 point halftime bulge and cruised to victory with Ted Methner, Jerry Norman and Jim Schrader hitting for 10 points apiece.

VITAP Seeking Volunteers

What does VITAP stand for? Volunteers Involved Together Assisting People. Dennis Rau of the Crawford County Dept. of Social Services announced this week that VITAP is currently seeking volunteers, people of all ages, who care enough to spend some time with others.

Rau said there are many people in the community in need of the interest and service that volunteers, like you, could provide. Volunteering through Social Services is worthwhile and personally rewarding.

You might have time for some friendly visiting and listening, or provide necessary transportation for on-going medical treatment, shopping for a shut-in, sharing "know-how" skills, do simple home repairs, serve as a guardian or as a receiver of third-party payments, or help in the volunteer office. Perhaps you can't leave your home or business but could provide supplies or facilities for activities, locate resources in the community such as furniture, appliances, housing or even jobs, recruit volunteers, repair clothing, furniture, knit, crochet, or sew.

Whatever the time, talent, or help that you are willing to give there is a place for you in the VITAP Program.

Find out how you can help now by calling Dennis Rau, Coordinator, Dept. of Social Services at 348-7691.

The theme for this year's party was Mexican. Queso Rellen and Nacho Supremes were served with tortillas as the Antojitos. Margaritas on Jarra were enjoyed throughout the game. The main course consisted of refried beans, Spanish rice and Enchiladas Empalmadas.

At the close of the evening a 3 tier anniversary cake topped with a bride & groom was presented to Barb & Tom Hazen in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary.

A good time was had by all, which included: Sandy & Duane Cory, Carolyn & Mike DiPonio, Barb & Tom Hazen and Kae & Jack Lund.

IN MEMORY

In memory of our beloved Gary William Mott, who lost his life tragically last January 28, 1979.

Gary is still mourned by all who knew him. For he tried to be everyone's friend and loved everybody.

He lived, worked and played hard and gave his best always.

Now he is with his maker. God Bless You-Gary, till we meet again. We all love you.

Huron Pines RC & D Area To Hold Annual Meeting

The Huron Pines Resource Conservation and Development Area will hold its Annual Meeting on Saturday, February 2, 1980, at the Holiday Inn in Grayling.

Chairman Jerry Mast reports, "the business meeting will begin at 10:15 a.m. All Soil Conservation District Directors, County Commissioners, Natural Resource agency personnel, and all interested citizens are cordially invited to attend." The main speaker will follow the noon luncheon.

Dr. Larry Tombaugh, Chairman of the Michigan State University Forestry Department, will be the man speaker. His topic will be "Forestry Resources: Problems and Opportunities." A number of forestry issues concern northern Michigan. Dr. Tombaugh is very interested in accelerating private forestry work throughout Michigan. The Huron Pines RC&D Area includes all eight counties in north-eastern Michigan. The major purpose of the Huron Pines Area is proper use and development of the region's natural resources to improve economic growth and make the area a better place in which to live, work and play. The RC&D Council responds to action measure proposals submitted by local people by working through existing programs and organizations to get the job done.

Significant accomplishments were made during the year even though the RC&D program was severely hampered by a restriction on measure planning. Ten measures were completed. Most completed measures did not require RC&D funds. In most cases, the measure sponsors found help or used their own funds to complete the needed work.

To date, 157 action measures have been received from local units of government, individuals and various agencies. A total of 39 measures have been completed.

The Huron Pines Council actively supports the wood for energy concept, developing farmers markets, and the Wetlands Awareness measure.

Bits O' Talk

by Fay Bovee

Fred Wolcott has been able to return to his teaching at Grayling High after being hospitalized at Mercy Hospital, Grayling, and Munson Hospital, Traverse City. He is feeling much better.

Mrs. Mike Fleming & two children were in Saginaw Friday evening and Saturday to help her mother, Mrs. Gerd Wirtz, celebrate her birthday.

Julie Smith, of Newark, Delaware, a hotel management major at MSU was a weekend visitor of her aunt and family, Jerry and Sue Hayes. She was accompanied by another MSU student, Ellen Hershman. The girls had originally planned to go skiing but were disappointed with "no snow."

The children of Roy McEvers held their family get-together which they do periodically throughout the year, at the Dick and Vicki Gascho residence in Alma the weekend of January 13.

Attending from Grayling were Ted and Jerry McEvers, Gerald and Shirley McEvers, and from Houghton Lake, Bob and Luann Neiderer.

Alan Hawley is a member of the varsity wrestling team at Michigan School for the Deaf in Flint. A senior, Alan has been a wrestler for four years. He is the son of Mrs. Chester Hawley of Grayling.

If the "no snow" continues, it may become necessary to reactivate the Par for the Course news since I understand our president, Gary McLaughlin, has been getting in some practice during the balmy days of January.

Dear Whitey,
 Last Saturday night we attended a performance of a play, "The Night of January 16th" performed by Grayling High School students. The production was very well done and we enjoyed it very much. We were also impressed by the professionalism of the cast.

The only thing that was disappointing was the poor turnout of the community. We don't know the reasons for this, but we would like to encourage more people to attend these high school performances. Not only will they be well entertained, but they will be giving valuable support to these students who are giving so much of their time & talents.

Sincerely,
 Mr. & Mrs. Randy Thompson

Costs, controls boost Dutch emigration

RICHARD MILLIMAN

INFLATION, high taxes, government regulations.

Sounds like a litany of complaints about life in the United States these days, as indeed it is.

But these are also the primary reasons cited by a growing number of citizens of the Netherlands who are emigrating to other parts of the world.

According to a recent Associated Press story, emigration from Holland was up from 2,200 persons to 2,500 persons for the first nine months of 1979, which doesn't seem a lot. But what is concerning Dutch government officials even more is that inquiries about emigration are up more than 100 percent, and actual applications have grown by 40 percent.

"COSTS FOR everyday living and maintenance expenses in Holland are skyrocketing, taxes are too high and living space is cramped, the emigres complain," the AP report says.

The Hollanders are heading for such places as South Africa, the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and Brazil.

The AP report cites the Meyjes family, who decided to leave after learning it would cost $10,000 to paint their house, and they would need government approval to cut down a tree on their property. These incidents put the capstone on their growing discomfort in their homeland, and they moved on to South Africa.

TAXES WERE blamed by another would-be-emigrant quoted by AP, Luud Peters, 28, who works in a car dealership.

"If I look at the difference between what I get every month and what it was before taxes, I get sick," Peters is quoted.

The tax system in the Netherlands, built largely since World War II, takes about 39 percent of the income of a bachelor earning $30,000 guilders, or about $15,000 a year, AP says. Of that, 10 percent is contributed to social security, including the government medical program, 12 percent to a pension fund for the elderly, and 17 percent to income tax.

"You just can't live on what is left," Peters said. He tried to move to the United States, but was turned down, so now is trying to emigrate to New Zealand or Australia.

THE PLIGHT of the dissatisfied Hollanders is interesting, but it sounds like ordinary coffee-time talk almost anywhere in the United States, too.

The high cost of housing, high food prices, living expenses going sky high, taxes soaring out of sight, government meddling in our everyday affairs—these are all problems here, too.

But as far as I have been aware, there aren't too many United States citizens who are anxious to chuck it all and move off to South Africa, or New Zealand, or Australia, or Brazil, or some other new frontier.

Oh, once in a while, we hear of someone so fed up that flight is the only answer, but it certainly has been no exodus. Bad as we might think it is, from time to time, the United States is still better than most spots in the world.

There is a breaking point, however, and an increasing number of Hollanders apparently are reaching that point. Social and government planners in this country should take note.

SOME CLOSING Nuts and Jolts from Hod Shewell:

—A taxpayer wouldn't mind tightening his belt, if it was around the necks of some congressmen.

—The growing switch to compact cars is a boon to city fathers; they can shorten parking spaces and add more meters.

—A bored -again Christian is one who sleeps through the sermon.

—No presidential candidate can never take New Hampshire for granite.

—I understand they don't have classes on current events in high school any more; today's students make their own.

by Peter Ingvarsson
This week I would like to highlight the remedial reading and math programs under Title I and Article 3. These programs are available to the children in the Crawford AuSable School system because of special State & Federal funding.

The students are referred to the programs after screening in September or by teacher referral. After placement in the remedial program the student is observed at various activities during the first few weeks of class. This helps determine what areas of reading and math and which specific skills the student needs remediation in.

With the child's needs in mind, and using the school district's newly adopted Reading Objectives as a guide, four or five individual objectives are written for each student in the remedial programs. The students follow a daily schedule of individualized activities designed to help them master the objectives written.

As each objective is met, a new one will take its place and new activities are designed for this objective.

The goals of the program are to build each student's confidence in himself and his abilities, improve comprehension and word attack skills, and increase the desire to learn how to read and perform math skills.

The programs use many different techniques to achieve these objectives. The teachers use the most recent ideas and materials. The Grayling Elementary also uses Volunteer Aides to individualize their remedial reading program.

If your child is involved in the remedial program and you have any questions about the program these teachers are available to you: Anna Esmond at the Middle School; Mary Smock at Frederic Elementary; Marianne Knepp at Grayling Elementary; Bob Woodland at the High School; and Edda Nuszowski who teaches at both Grayling and Frederic Elementary.

THANK YOU

Thank you very much to all my friends who were concerned about me during my three stays in the Otsago Memorial Hospital. Thanks for all the flowers and cards and most of all for the moral support. Also thanks to Dr. Guno, Dr. Moon, nurses, hospital staff, Frederic Ambulance attendants, Frederic Hobby Club, Crawford County Department of Social Services, employees of Standard Products, Standard Products Personnel and U.A.W. VOCATIONAL TEST—Chief Evaluator Ron Matthews is shown administering a vocational aptitude test at the ROOC Evaluation Center, one of many used in plotting occupational paths for clients. (Joe Schrader photo) before testing procedures are started with a client is to develop vocational interests.

The basic evaluation of job interest is followed by backup testing to confirm its validity. Actual testing begins at that point and can be individually customized to suit the individual, varying in length from a week to as many as four if the full battery is used. It's objective is to answer, first, the question, "is the client employable?" And if so, "in what occupational field?"

Equipment to measure hand and foot coordination, size discrimination, simulated assembly, drafting and electrical circuitry are but a few used during the course of the testing program. Evaluations go as far as using charts to determine a client's physical work range, all of which is contained in his final summation and report. Test paraphernalia to simulate an office or clerical setting is employed, as well as use of a unique typewriter with Greek alphabet keys used to determine clerical and typing aptitude.

"We feel we need all the test equipment we can get our hands on," Matthews emphasized, "the very nature of this particular area demands it. We meet people here with very high skills and those with very low."

All throughout a testing sequence, the client involved is counseled and kept informed about how he or she is doing. "We don't want any surprises when we're through," Matthews explained.

When all of the test data is gathered together and analyzed, a final summation and report is forwarded to the referring agency, or provided the client if a self-referral. A client may or may not be employed at the ROOC Workshop afterward. "We don't recommend our facility over any other possible employment possibility," Matthews said, "all we do is provide a suggested vocational pathway for them to follow."

Results of the testing may even show an individual is capable of working in a competitive environment. "We evaluate the type of skills a client has," he continued, "and only recommend the type of work for which he is best suited."

The test center functions like any other private enterprise, with the cost of evaluations borne by referring agencies, or in the case of a self-referral, the client himself. In either case, what the individual obtains is a roadmap outlining a recommended vocational path to follow.

Those who are referred to, and accepted for employment at the ROOC workshop itself, find themselves working in a pleasant shop atmosphere equipped with modern equipment and skilled supervision. Workshop employees, now some 100 in all, are currently assembling plastic toys and engaged in sewing activity, making hospital gowns and other sanitary clothing. And vocational testing may well continue into the employment setting.

A third employee at ROOC is Gerri Affhalter, a line supervisor in the sheltered workshop. She supplies evaluators with a continual flow of information on clients employed who have gone through vocational evaluation. The follow-up is necessary in order to measure skill and work activity improvement. "Improvement, short or long range in each client is our ultimate goal," Matthews added.

Clients at the workshop are paid for their efforts through income derived from contracts the facility is able to obtain.

The typical case workload for Matthews and Braun now is 10 clients per week and they also provide testing services at a satellite workshop located in Mancelona. Referrals may come from anywhere in the state although most are from its service area.

ROOC staff members work closely with employers in the area in providing jobs for clients who advance to competitive employment capabilities.

On November 26, 1979 at approximately 1:00 p.m., patrolman Karl Schreiner of the Grayling Police Department, responded to a call for assistance in the parking lot of the Grayling City Hall.

Upon arrival at the scene, patrolman Schreiner found Michigan State Police Sergeant Michael Nowak and James Berglund examining a victim suffering from what was later defined as a "Heart Block". The victim was on the front seat of a vehicle and no pulse could be detected.

Patrolman Schreiner and Sgt. Nowak performed C.P.R. on the victim until she was revived and taken to Grayling Mercy Hospital. She was later transferred to a Traverse City Hospital where a pacemaker was implanted and is now home and doing well.

The attending physician confirmed that the actions of Patrolman Schreiner were instrumental in the saving of the life of the victim.

Mr. Morford read the following Award to be presented Sgt. James Berglund of the Michigan State Police:

CITATION FOR LIFE-SAVING ACTION

On November 26, 1979 at approximately 1:00 p.m., Sgt. James Berglund of the Michigan State Police responded to a call for assistance in the parking lot of the Grayling City Hall.

Upon arrival at the scene, Sgt. Berglund and Sgt. Michael Nowak discovered a victim suffering from what was later defined as a "Heart Block". The victim was on the front seat of a vehicle and no pulse could be detected.

Sgt. Berglund suggested that City Police Patrolman Karl Schreiner and Sgt. Nowak perform C.P.R. on the victim. She was revived and taken to Mercy Hospital. She was later transferred to a Traverse City hospital where a pacemaker was implanted and is now home and doing well.

The attending physician confirmed that the actions of Sgt. Berglund were instrumental in the saving of the life of the victim.

The City Council of the City of Grayling, the city administration and city police department are proud to present this citation on behalf of the citizens of Grayling and to congratulate Sgt. Berglund on a job well done.

Signed this 14th day of January, 1980.

Guarded Treasure

What infinite pains we take to guard our valuable possessions! Yet not all our possessions can be given protection in a safe. What about the priceless treasure which each of us possesses — our eternal happiness?

To safeguard this great treasure, where can we go?

The answer lies in the Church. It gives us the combination that opens the door to our spiritual riches — the combination of faith and good works. The Church guards and guides us along the way that leads to the treasure — the way led by Jesus, our Savior. It invites everyone to join in service to God and to our fellowmen. In this way, we inherit new riches of the spirit that no man or circumstance can steal or destroy.

Are you a new resident in the Grayling area and looking for a way to become involved in a community service? Perhaps you've been here in the community for some time, but haven't had the opportunity to get acquainted or become involved in a positive way.

By becoming a Volunteer Aide for the Crawford AuSable School system you can be involved and spend some of your extra time in a worthwhile service.

The Volunteer Aide program has many "special" people already devoting their time and talent to helping school children. You can become a part of this "special" group.

The basic requirements are not difficult: You must enjoy working with/and helping children; be dependable and adaptable; and understand the goals of the school and the Volunteer program.

For more information about the program or if you have any questions please feel free to call Cheryl LaDuke at 348-7641, ext. 52.

chased. Costs will be obtained from various companies.

14. The Report of Assessing Functions was received, reviewed, and placed on file. Computer changes are current, open building permits are being reviewed, and an Economic Condition Factor will be applied to buildings for 1980.

15. Fowler reported on a meeting he had with other Township Supervisors in the county to discuss various mutual concerns. The Ambulance assistance request was the main topic of discussion. Two of the Townships either have their own ambulance or an agreement for service with adjacent townships. Another has donated in excess of the $2.00 per capita suggested, and no response has been received from the others. After discussing the matter, the following agreement was offered: The TOWNSHIP OF GRAYLING, Crawford County, Michigan, does hereby enter into an Agreement with the CRAWFORD COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS, Crawford County, Michigan, to provide $8620.00 for the purpose of sharing in the cost of purchase of a new ambulance which will be used to provide ambulance service in the County of Crawford which includes all of Grayling Township.

The amount of $8620.00 is based on the Grayling Township population of 4,310 according to the mid-decade census taken in 1976 and is at the rate of $2.00 per capita. This amount is payable according to the following schedule: 1979-80 Fiscal Year-$4310.00, 1980-81 Fiscal Year-$4310.00.

Motion by Hallett, supported by Gardiner, to authorize the Supervisor to enter into an agreement with the Crawford County Commissioners, to share in the cost of purchase of a new ambulance in the amount of $8620.00 ($2.00 per capita) over a two year period which will be used to provide ambulance service in the Township. Roll Call: Gardiner-aye, Hallett-aye, Millikin-aye, Wieland-aye, Fowler-aye.

16. A request for division of Lot 25 of Timberidge Estates No. 2 was received from Arthur R. Thayer. Motion by Gardiner, supported by Millikin, to approve the division of Lot 25 when a survey is received indicating approximately the westerly 60' of Lot 25 being combined with Lot 26 and the remainder of Lot 25 being combined with Lot 24. All Ayes.

17. An application was received from Checkwriter Insurance for coverage on forgery and check alteration and a mechanical service contract.

18. Fowler informed the Board that court proceedings have been initiated on a barking dogs complaint filed through his office.

Motion by Millikin, supported by Hallett, to approve vouchers 3899 and 3913 through 3936 in the amount of $15,344.24 as presented. Roll Call: Gardiner-aye, Hallett-aye, Millikin-aye, Wieland-aye, Fowler-aye.

Motion by Gardiner, supported by Wieland, meeting be adjourned. (40 pm) All Ayes.

Elizabeth H. Wieland
Township Clerk

Vike Wrestlers 4th In Clare Invitational

by Joe Schrader

Viking matmen journeyed to Clare last Saturday to compete in the 8-team Clare Invitational and came home with a 4th place team finish and a pair of individual championships.

Burt Partello, Grayling's premiere 126-lb. grappler, copped his 5th tournament championship of the season and 145-lb. Tim Jones also brought home a first place medal. The squad finished fourth in what Coach Don Ferguson described a "tough tournament" with 126½ points. Hemlock walked off with top honors with 174 points, trailed by Rogers City (139 pts.) and Farwell (130 pts.), second and third respectively.

Second place finishes for Grayling went to Dave Pettit at 112 lbs. and 185-lb. Jerry Lucksted. Tim Ferrigan at 132 lbs. and heavyweight Steve Allen both copped third place awards. Other schools competing in the tournament were host Clare, Pine River, Roscommon and Pinconning.

Last Thursday in a dual meet here at home, the Vikes toppled the Onaway Cardinals in a lopsided win, 57-13. Posting wins for the Vikes were Steve Sauve, Tim Jensen, Dave Pettit, Burt Partello and Tim Ferrigan. Victorious also were Dwayne Bloos, Tim Jones, and Terry & Jerry Lucksted. John Solomonson and Steve Allen were winners by forfeit.

Jaycee Week

In honoring the 60th Anniversary of Jaycees in the United States, we would like to let our Jaycees in Grayling know what a fantastic job they have done in just less than 1 years time. Their membership consists of 55 young and ambitious men who care about the community in which they live. We have watched a group of men join together and become better parents, husbands and most of all citizens, aware of the need to serve humanity no matter how small.

The Jaycee philosophy by which they guide themselves is this:

Faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life.

That the brotherhood of man transcends sovereignty of nations,

That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise,

That government should be laws rather than of men,

That earth's great treasure lies in human personalities and,

That service to humanity is the best work of life...

We hope the Jaycees continue to influence our community with their great service. It is our sincere wish that your second year be even bigger and more successful than your first. That you reach out and touch more people than ever before and offer the Jaycee opportunity to even more young men and women.

Keep up the Good Work...Guys...

Middle School Cagers Win Some, Lose Some...

It was "A" team night for the 7th and 8th grade basketball teams last week as both recorded victories over Harrison while the "B" teams were not so fortunate.

At Harrison, the home team took a 30-19 win in the "B" game and Grayling came back with 43-34 win for the "A" team. Riley McNamara topped the little Vikings in the "B" contest. Barsie Cross hit for 16 points for the "A" team with Mick Lovely adding nine.

At Grayling it was Harrison taking the 8th grade "B" team game, 36-17. Ken Lademan with seven points and Dave Doty with 8 rebounds led the Vikings. Twelve points by Paul Hamlin and 11 for Wayne Ross paved the way for the 34-25 "A" team victory.

Next Wednesday, Gaylord will furnish the opposition with the 7th grade on the road and the 8th grade at home, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

4-H Needs Help To Raise Puppies

Crawford County 4-H is looking for kids to raise Retriever puppies to be leader dogs for the blind. The puppies are free, and the Grayling Lions' Club will be responsible for food and all medical needs for two of the pups.

Mrs. Nancy Hatfield will be in charge of the 4-H Club and will meet with anyone wanting a dog. The child will raise the puppy for one year, at the end of that time the pup will be sent to a training school in Rochester, Mich. for more extensive training.

If you're interested and would like more information, contact the Cooperative Extension Office at 348-5123 or Mrs. Nancy Hatfield after 5:30 p.m. at 348-9769.
